PREFACE.

THAT the affairs of one's neighbours are of no little interest to men of every class of life, has perhaps never been more strongly proved than by the production of and great demand for "The Modern Domesday Book." Not only have Mr. Frederick Purdy and others analyzed it, Mr. Lyulph Stanley abused it, Mr. John Bright moved its digestion in the House, and the "Spectator" and other London journals scathingly criticised it, but the immense herd of country newspapers have actually reproduced it, as far as their own neighbourhoods are concerned, in their columns, much, probably, to the satisfaction of the bulk of readers, to whom twenty-six shillings (the price of the English volumes alone) is prohibitory. As an example of this, I may mention, that having a small party in my house during one of those dubious weeks which come in 'twixt the close of the hunting and the beginning of the London season, I was saved all Marthean cares as to the amusement of my guests simply by leaving about on the table the two huge volumes of "The Modern Domesday," over which I found bowed with the utmost constancy two or more heads.

I heard from one of my guests that the copy of the work at the "Ultratorium" was reduced to rags and tatters within a fortnight of its arrival—a lesson which was not wasted on the library committee of my own club, who caused the book to be so bound as to defy anything short of a twelve-year-old school-boy.

Mr. Lyulph Stanley finds great fault with the carelessness of some of the entries in "Domesday,"—faults which, it must be admitted, are most perplexing to the compiler—faults in spelling, faults in description of residence, gross faults as to the initialling of names, not infrequent double entries of the same man, first as John, then as J., and in the same fashion through the alphabet; and not least, the almost invariable mixing up of a parson's glebe land, or possession in his public capacity of parish priest, with his private acreage, as what Sydney Smith dubbed a "squarson." One huge stumbling-block in the way of the work's perfection is the large number of double-barrelled (if I may use the term) names in England, such as Hart-Dyke, Leveson-Gower, and Vernon-Harcourt, to say naught of such perfect "mitrailleuses" as Rouse-Boughton-Knight and Butler-Clarke-Southwell-Wandesforde. This necessitates a search for acres under every one of the bracketed family names.

In Wales the difficulty lies in a very different direction, i.e., in the almost desperate simplicity of names; in fact, it may be taken for granted that two-thirds of Wales is owned by the families of Jones, Davies, Evans, and Williams.

Would that for the wretched compiler's sake there had been a few more "Sir Watkins" in existence! That deservedly popular "King of Wales" will, I hope (not being the inquisitive stranger myself), pardon me if I mention a story told me by another Welshman.

SCENE.—First Class Carriage on Central Wales Railway.

DRAMATIS PERSONÆ.—SIR W. W. WYNN (much disposed to snooze), INQUISITIVE SNOB.

Snob. Can you tell me, sir, whose is that nice little house in the wood there?

Sir W. W. W. (civilly). Oh yes, that's mine.

Snob (after pause of ten minutes). Who owns that grouse mountain, sir?

Sir W. W. W. (sleepily). Eh?—er—I—do.

Snob (after another pause). Can you tell me, sir, whose woods those are over to the right?

Sir W. W. W. (roused from doze, and with irritation). Mine!

At the next stopping place the snob jumped out, sought the station-master, and told him that (happily half asleep, and therefore not dangerous), in the same carriage with him was a maniac who swore that the whole country belonged to him.

In a compilation of the sort I have attempted, mistakes must occur, but I have tried to minimize them by noting the most glaring and oft-recurring errors in the return, in order to be on guard against them. I may class these errors as follows :

I. Mixture of Vowels.—Vowels I find in the return mean next to nothing. For instance, Sir H. Selwin-Ibbetson is returned as himself properly spelt, and in the same county as "Sir H. Ebbetson;" in the far north, the name of Lindow is spelt with the most perfect impartiality "Lindow," "Lindon," and "London;" in a Midland county, my good friend John Levett and his kinsfolk are put in as "Levitt," "Lovett," and "Lovatt," and unless a man knew or found out that no Lovett was ever squire of Wichnor and guardian of the hereditary flitch, he would grievously fail in judging the Levett acreage aright. In Derbyshire, again, the considerable family of Turbutt is robbed of its entire patrimony (except a beggarly four acres), which is given to the mythical house of "Tinbutt." In Somerset one "Troate" usurps a goodly share of Mr. Troyte's domains. I might multiply these cases a hundredfold.

II. Variation of Consonants.—Even consonants are muddled in a most arbitrary fashion; one main object of the rural authority who furnished the materials for "Domesday" being to spell his local landowners phonetically, the family possessions of the house of "Fazakerley" are distributed among the "Fazackerleys," "Fizackleas," "Phizackarleys," and "Phizackleas."

The half-educated Briton, especially the South Saxon, is fond of adding to the length, if not to the dignity of a name, by adding a final "s"; the London mob invariably cheered the late champion of popular rights as "Odgers." This final "s" is in "Domesday Book" very frequently added, so much so that in a similar compilation to the present for England alone, somewhat hastily done, I altogether failed to recognize as one and the same owner the head of the Bucks and Essex family of "Tower," who figures under the fourfold spellings of "Tower," "Towers," "Trower," and "Trowers." It is possible he may even be entered for a few acres as "Trousers," on some page which I have overlooked.

Mr. Pochin would probably hardly care to own an estate were the ownership coupled with the condition that he should change his name to "Poctim," yet so "Domesday" has it. Mr. Ellis Nanney perhaps thinks the return a most incorrect piece of work, and his estate lamentably understated, in which case I would advise him to look for his missing lands under "Vanney."

A small estate in Sussex is returned as belonging to one "Burdffmak;" who this appalling name is meant for quite outreaches all conjecture.

III. Titles.—Titles are a great trial. Englishmen are said to "love a lord," but that is hardly an excuse for giving two steps in the peerage, as is done in Lord Stafford's case, and some others, or for making the widows of knights into Lady Janes, Lady Bettys, and Lady Marys. I may mention that a Viscount seems to be a hopeless grievance to the compilers, who get out of the difficulty by sometimes using the simple letter V, and in other cases Vincent; Lord Valentia, for instance, being entered as "V. Valentia."

In countrified parts one often hears of ladies who act the part of Lady Bountiful being described as "Ladies as is Ladies," but I was hardly prepared to find that this description had gained a footing in the parochial rate books and the parliamentary returns; so it is, however, and I could mention several cases where plain "Mrs. A." is returned as "Lady A." A more excusable, but at the same time puzzling vagary, is to enter the numerous class of "Hon. Mesdames" as "Ladies." The letter V is not a prolific one, but two such cases occur in it, "Hon. Mrs. Vernon" and "Hon. Mrs. Vansittart" being entered as "Lady Vernon" and "Lady Vansittart." Titles, however, are no obstacle when, as seems to have been the case in some counties north of the Humber, the parochial authorities were of the Quaker persuasion, for there I find a man's title sometimes denied him in toto. Had the Prince been a Northern landowner they would have possibly entered him as "Albert E. Guelph."

IV. Addresses.—The general orders of Government were that the rate collectors should give the addresses of the landowner, and not the name of the farm or farms he owned, or the name of the parish in which they lay. This has been done fairly well in some counties, notably the South-eastern, where, if they do not know an owner's address, they either leave it blank, with the name of the place in which the acreage is situate in brackets, or simply insert the address of the firm of lawyers who collect the rents, at No. — Lincoln's Inn.

In some parts of England the confusion is horrible; for instance, an owner, say Mr. J. T. P. Smith-Green, of Granby Hall, will be described as J. Smith, Little Pedlington—perhaps he only owns an outlying farm there; as J. T. Green Smith, of Granby Hall, his real abode; as John Thomas Plantagenet SMITH-GREEN, of 200, Portland Place, W.; as J. T. P. GREEN-SMITH, of the Fogies' Club, S.W.—the only error in this case being the putting the Green in front of the Smith, and giving his address at his club on the all-sufficient ground that he once dated a letter enclosing a cheque for rates from it ; as J. G. Smith, of Aix-les-Bains, for same reason ; or as J. T. P. Smythe-Green, of Boulevard, Paris—"Boulevard," "Paris," being all the locus standi given to one owner whose popularity is undoubted and whose acres are very broad. I have, therefore, had no scruple, where internal evidence is forthcoming in any case, in crediting a man with acres, whether his address be parochial, real country seat, London house, club, such-and-such a regiment, Lincoln's Inn, or any English or foreign watering-place where he may be making a temporary sojourn for economy, health, or any other cause.

The Scotch and Irish returns, as regards workmanship, compare most favourably with the English—the Scotch returns being perhaps the best ; the Irish work being principally done by that fine body of men, the constabulary, might have been expected to excel, but the perhaps natural prejudice against absentees has too often prompted them to give either, a blank, "England," or "The Continent," as the sole address of many a large landholder, thus marring the completeness of their labours ; at the same time it is curious to note, that while in England and Scotland a man is the unfortunate inmate of an asylum, the compilers discreetly conceal the fact by leaving the address blank ; in Ireland, contrariwise, the name of the asylum is always given. Even Scottish counties, like English ones, vary in degrees of goodness and badness ; Kirkcudbrightshire being facile princeps in excellence, which is strange, as at low water it almost touches Cumberland, a badly done county, and next neighbour to Lancashire, which is out-and-out the worst done of all counties in England.

V. Initials.—These are not always to be trusted. F and T being particular sinners, so much so that I have in this work utterly disregarded the distinction between them, where the addresses are the same, or even in the same neighbourhood.

The following case, affecting two estates not far from my own, is a fair example:—

White, F. G. G., Wethersfield, acres 1,561, val. 2,491*l*.

White, T. G. G., Wethersfield 3,576 4,303*l*.

The facts of the case simply these:—

That Mr. White owned estates in two parishes or more. That in each case his address was correctly given. That one returning authority could not have written a very plain T., but that he gave T. as the initial not a soul who knows Essex would for a moment doubt. These entries, I may say, occur, not side by side as I have put them, but on different sheets. The initial of a father's name is frequently given, while he may have been dead and his acres in the son's possession, say ten years.

Ten years, however, does not suffice for the eminently conservative county of Somerset, where in one case they "keep the memory of the dead man green" for eighteen years in the rate books, not troubling themselves to substitute the son's name for that of the father.

VI. Miscellaneous blunders.—Such as the mixture of names and addresses; the giving the name of the tenant as owner instead of that of the freeholder; the too liberal use of trusteeships as substitutes for ownerships personal; and lastly the "clerical error" pure and simple. As an instance of the first form of blunder I would mention the case of the late Col. Peers Williams, whose Anglesea estate is given to Col. T. Williams, of "Peers," "Menai Bridge." A fair example of the second class of error is that of Mr. Peckover, of Wisbeach, who is returned as owner of only about 2,000 acres in various counties—his estates amounting to well over 3,000 acres, partly entered in his tenants' names; this sort of error is probably very common. Of the third class Sir Walter Barttlelot's is noteworthy, Sir Walter being owner of between 3,000 and 4,000 acres, while "Domesday" only allows him something short of 2,400; the balance being entered as the property of various trustees. The last class of blunders is the most hopeless. A mysterious "Mr. Jos. Rewes," in my own county, troubled me not a little, being entered as an owner of some 6,000*l.* a-year in land. Thinking it odd I had never heard of him socially, politically, in the hunting field, or even on a subscription list, I wrote to friends in the close neighbourhood of his supposed estate; they knew him not! I then teased all the neighbouring rate collectors without effect, beyond discovering the existence of a clodhopper named "Reeves," who did not own much more than half an acre. In despair I attacked the Local Government Board, who very civilly investigated the matter, and informed me that "Jos. Rewes" was inserted by a clerical error for "Jas. Tabor," the head of an Essex family, seated in the same parish, who, if "Domesday" were to be trusted, would have had but a few hundreds a-year to live upon.

A few gentlemen, in cases of these gross errors, have been at considerable pains to clear them up; some on the contrary nothing will induce to answer, the consequence being that I have omitted a few acreages, which though exceeding 3,000 acres are palpably in error. Mr. Potts, for instance, of Chester, is down for 5,560 acres in Staffordshire, rented at 221*l.* a-year. Staffordshire land is not exactly the same thing as Sutherland bogs, as the noble owner of Trentham knows full well, and I may safely affirm that, except in the latter county, Wester Ross, county Mayo, or county Kerry, no such poverty-stricken estate could be found. All endeavours, however, have failed in the case of a "Revd. Scutt," of Bognor, whose existence is denied by the Sussex officials; and of a mysterious estate in county Down, the ownership of which is bandied backwards and forwards by the Irish Local Government Board, Lord Clanwilliam, and his second son. (See Clanwilliam.)

In arranging these pages I have drawn the line at 3,000 acres—the line must be drawn somewhere—and though 'tis hard for some old-established families, such as Bodenham, of Rotherwas, to be excluded because, as in his case, he lacks but a quarter of an acre, though his income therefrom amounts to about 6,000*l.* a-year, whilst Sir Goahead Scattercash, with his 3,001 acres, mortgaged for rather more than they are worth, duly appears as a "great landowner," yet so it must be, and I can only assure Mr. Bodenham that if he can show me the additional quarter acre under some mis-spelling, he shall be duly entered in the next edition. I have also to mention that I have given, in every case but that of Mr. T. Truesdale Clarke, Mr. Clarke-Thornhill, Mr. Sotheron-Estcourt, and one or two others, the son's acres to the father, the Dowager's property, in every case where it will probably go back to the main estate, to her eldest son, and the wife's property to the husband; for instance, his Grace of Devonshire has added to his acreage some 5,000, which in the return are under Lord Hartington's name.

In case, however, I make an amalgamation of nominally different owners, I take care to mention it at the foot of the notice.

I have taken no notice of parts of an acre, or of shillings and pence; in every case, therefore, where a man owns in divers counties his acres and income will be slightly greater. Some families here entered do not enjoy the credit of anything like their real income and area, for three reasons: first, that that area may be in Lancashire, West Yorkshire, or Staffordshire, where the return sins grievously in giving incomes without area; or that it may be in the Metropolitan District, which is not entered at all, or that it may lie in East Hereford, West Sussex, or other well wooded district, where one-third perhaps of the whole area is under timber; at the date of the compilation of "Domesday" woods destitute of saleable underwood being still unrated.

The rent-roll pertaining to the houses of Bedford, Westminster, Portland, Maryon-Wilson, Cadogan, and Lowndes of Chesham, to mention only a few, would look more imposing by far were London included in the return.

As it is interesting to know a man's religion and politics, and at the same time unusual to say what they are, I have added, where I can arrive at them, each landowner's college and club. From his college may be inferred the religion of his forebears, if not his own; though this inference is not so invariably true as of yore. Had this compilation been made twenty years ago, every Roman Catholic proprietor might have been "spotted" by the place of his education being given as Oscott, Ushaw, or Stonyhurst; now on the contrary, at least fifteen per cent. of the heirs to Roman Catholic estates find their way to either Oxford or Cambridge. It is noticeable that among perverts from the Protestant to the Roman Catholic faith, though Oxford is responsible for far the greater number of cases among both laic small fry and the English clergy, the perversions of big-wigs from Cambridge more than equal those from Oxford. When a landowner's alma mater is given as "Edinburgh" or "Glasgow," it is, as far as I can judge, only evidence to the extent of about four to one in favour of his being a Presbyterian.

From a man's club may be pretty safely gathered his status, his politics and pursuits; for instance, in "Brooks's" one does not expect to find a violent radical; in "White's" a nouveau riche; in the "Athenæum" a sporting man; in the St. George's a hot Orangeman; in the "National" a henchman of Cardinal Manning; in the "Raleigh" one of the straitest sect of the Pharisees; in the "Turf" a great light of science; or, I may add, in the "Travellers'" a Livingstone, a Speke, or a Baker; though in justice to the "Turf," I should add that the fact of a man's membership is just as likely to mean that he is an accomplished whist player, as that he concerns himself in the smallest degree with the comparative speed of horses.

As to incomes, this compilation is only trustworthy as far and no further than the return, except in those cases marked with an asterisk. (See final Note.)

In England mines vastly complicate the return, coal property being added to and mixed with the land, a most unfair proceeding, as coal is capital, not in any sense income, coal rents being in point of fact annual coal sales. The canny Scot takes good care in every case to separate between a man's above-ground and under-ground rental. Again the cases of exaggerated incomes from the ground landlord being credited with the whole rent, from building property, which will eventually fall in to his grandchildren, are very frequent, when estates impinge on large towns or fashionable watering-places. The return takes care to point out three of the more glaring instances of this exaggeration, viz., the Duke of Norfolk, at Sheffield, Lord Calthorpe, at Birmingham, and Sir John St. Aubyn, at Torquay; I have added notes to a few more cases that have come within my own ken. In regard to other mineral property I am much indebted to Mr. Jasper More, late Member for South Salop, who has pointed out to me the incongruity of entering incomes from coal and not those from lead, tin, and copper. Lead and other metals, though now rateable, were not so at the date of the English return, and in consequence many Welsh and Cornish estates are returned at but a tithe of their real value, for I need hardly say that where, as in Lord Lisburne's case, a mine proves "real jam," the owner is in no hurry to turn it into a limited company.

In conclusion, let me say that this compilation (partially attempted in 1876 for England alone) was undertaken by me simply as a labour of love, when no one else seemed disposed to attempt it; it is, no doubt, full of errors, but such errors would be tenfold were the process repeated by any one who, unlike myself, lacked a fair knowledge of who's who.

Also let me express my gratitude to many correspondents who have taken the trouble to correct their own notices, and to point out errors in those of their neighbours; I venture to hope that others will follow their good example, and, where they find a mis-statement, will send me a correct one, noting in cases where they have added to their family acres by purchase, from whom those acres were bought, or in the unhappy case of a dwindling patrimony, to whom they were sold, so that in any future edition I may get my "Great Landowners" absolutely correct.

JOHN BATEMAN.

GREAT BROMLEY LODGE, COLCHESTER,
December, 1877.

NOTE ON ARRANGEMENT.

WHERE the letter S occurs after a name, it denotes that the person to whom it is attached, or his father, is noticed in Mr. Shirley's "Noble and Gentle Men of England" as being either head of, or head of a junior branch of, a family who held land in the same county, since the time of Henry VII., in unbroken male line.

I am indebted to Mr. Shirley for having carefully gone over the present list; his book, I may say, excludes all families which did not in Henry VII.'s time hold land enough to give what we now call the position of a "county family."

An asterisk following a name shows that the landowner or his agent have themselves corrected the notice.

Where p occurs it denotes that the landowner sits in Parliament; if placed simply beneath his name, he sits for some town or county with which he has no property connexion. If thus, "Sussex p," it means that he sits for some division of Sussex, or for some borough within its borders. The dc thus reversed shows that he has sat in the House of Commons. The p in lighter type shows the same thing in regard to the landowner's eldest son. If placed against a county, that son sits for some place within that county's bounds; or if reversed, he has sat in some former Parliament.

To many landowners' names I have added a list of their services to the Queen or the Parliament, irrespective of such local services as are the usual penalties of local greatness,—i.e., Shrievalties, Lord and Deputy Lieutenancies, Militia and Volunteer commands, and Justiceships of the Peace. Almost every great landowner worthy of his salt (and not a few quite unworthy) have filled one or more of these posts; had I inserted them the volume would have been far too bulky.

Where dates of succession of widows are given, these dates only refer in nine cases out of ten to the year of their widowhood.

The Return gives the Welsh property to Lady Dunsany.

Among Lord Dunsany's Irish possessions is one field of a few acres which is remarkable for its fatal effects on all livestock; if grazed on it horses lose their hoofs, if hay is made from it, stock fed on the hay lose hoofs, and if the diet be continued they die; if corn or potatoes be grown on it, the human animal who eats them loses his nails. It would be a curious question whether this field is "rated" or not.

All this property, except 400 acres, is entered in this return under the head of "Rewes, Jos." of Prittlewell. The compiler was some months in discovering that there never was such a man, and the Local Government Board explain it as "a mistake of the copyist" for "Tabor, James"; if mistakes of this magnitude occur often, the value of the return would not be great.

The Duchy of Cornwall extends over parts of five counties, the acreage being 69,502, and the (nominal) rental 31,290*l.*, but it must be remembered that in the return of 1874 lead mines were unrated and unentered. The chief value of the Duchy is in its Devon and Cornwall mines, of which the very best are workings on lead.

New and Important Works.

Burke's General Armory. Encyclopædia of Heraldry, or General Armory of England, Scotland, and Ireland. By SIR BERNARD BURKE, C.B., LL.D. Comprising a registry of all Armorial Bearings from the earliest times. An entirely new edition. Corrected to the present date. Comprising, in about 1,000 pages, the description of the ARMS OF 60,000 FAMILIES; forming the most complete record of the Armorial Bearings of the Nobility and Gentry of the Three Kingdoms. (Uniform with the Peerage, Landed Gentry, &c.) Royal 8vo., cloth. Price £2 12s. 6d.

Burke's Peerage, Baronetage, &c., for the present year, WITH ADDITIONAL MATTER, containing the Privy Councillors, Knights of various Orders and Knights Bachelors, with a record of their families. Royal 8vo., cloth, gilt. Price 38s.

* * This edition also gives the names of the different Clubs to which the members of the Nobility belong, and other important information not contained in previous editions.

Landed Gentry of Great Britain and

Ireland. By SIR BERNARD BURKE, C.B., LL.D. A RE-ISSUE OF THE FIFTH EDITION, with Supplement containing nearly 200 ADDITIONAL FAMILIES, and an Addenda containing NUMEROUS CORRECTIONS; together with an Index to Families in Supplement and Addenda. 2 vols., royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £3 3s.

"A work of this kind is of a national value. Its utility is not merely temporary, but it will exist and be acknowledged as long as the families, whose names and genealogies are recorded in it, continue to form an integral portion of the English constitution."—Post.

The Overland Route, From England to

Calcutta, as Conducted in 1845. By the late FREDERICK WALTER SIMMS, Esq., F.R.A.S., F.G.S., M. Inst. C.E., late Consulting Engineer to the Government of India; Author of "Practical Tunnelling," "Surveying and Levelling," &c. Edited by his SON. Foolscep 8vo., cloth. Price 6s.

Great Landowners of Britain, being a List of all Owners of 3,000 acres and upwards, worth £3,000 a year, in England, Scotland, and Ireland; their acreage, income from land, college, club and services. Culled from the "Modern Domesday Book," by JOHN BATEMAN. Crown 8vo., cloth. Price 10s.

Large Game Shooting in Thibet and the North-West. By CAPTAIN ALEXANDER A. A. KINLOCH, C.M.Z.S. Containing description of the Country, and of the various Animals to be found, together with extracts from a journal of several years' standing. Illustrated by Photographs of Heads and Horns, executed by the Photo-tint process. SECOND SERIES. Demy 4to., cloth gilt. Price 21s.

* * This work will prove highly acceptable to Sportsmen, for the Author not only explains where the game is to be found, the mode of travel and the best seasons to hunt, but gives some well executed photos of the large game. . . . This work should be largely patronized."—European Mail.

"The animals, whose haunts and habits he describes, are those which he has himself tracked out and slain, often after many ineffectual attempts, and an amount of persevering toil which would have tired out the patience of most men."—Edinburgh Courant.

Life of Sir William Parker, Bart., G.C.B.

(Admiral of the Fleet), First and Principal Naval Aide-de-camp to Her Majesty, &c., from 1781 to 1866. By REAR-ADMIRAL AUGUSTUS PHILLIMORE, with History of the Parker Family, &c. (To be completed in two volumes.) Volume 1, Demy 8vo., cloth. Price 16s.

 "This is a delightful book, as full of adventure and interest as one of Marryat's novels, yet written without any kind of affectation or exaggeration. . . . We shall look forward with much interest to the appearance of the second volume of this very valuable and most interesting biography."—Vanity Fair.

"The chief value of this important biography seems to us that it shows, in a clear light, the state of the Navy at a most critical epoch."—Civil Service Gazette.

Karens of the Golden Chersonese. By

LIEUT.-COL. A. R. MCMAHON, F.R.G.S., Madras Staff Corps, Deputy-Commissioner British Burmah. With Map. Demy 8vo., cloth. Price 16s.

"The author possesses a good knowledge of native character; his picture of the Karen tribes, enslaved and despised by their Burmese conquerors, is in striking contrast to his account of the free and fierce Red Karen untractable and inaccessible in his native mountain home."—Athenæum.

* * "The Author compresses his adventures into a small space, and seems to have undergone all sorts of fatigue and exposure, in company with his wife, in a country not usually accessible to ladies; and he gives good advice as to the best means of curing and preserving skins and heads."—Saturday Review

* * "This work will prove highly acceptable to sportsmen, for the Author not only explains where the game is to be found, the mode of travel, and the best seasons to hunt, but gives some well-executed photos of the large game. . . . -As a sportsman and a word-painter he is inimitable, and his work should be largely patronised."—European Mail.

"This is an attractive volume. . . . Captain Kinloch writes on all these subjects in a genuine and straightforward style, aiming at giving a complete description of the habits and movements of the game. . . . The full-page illustrations in this book are fine photographs taken from life, and add much to the value of this valuable work."—British Mail.
